

Our Marketing Partners

In this edition

This week, win your club's facilities a makeover with Johnstone's Paint, UEFA announce Grassroots Day and the winners of our Junior Kit Competition.

Elsewhere, Yeovil extend their deal with Vandanel, Lindley Catering strike twice while Huddersfield join RelayStation.

Heyside Angels win FTD kit competition

Oldham based girls side Heyside Angels bagged themselves a new set of Errea football kits courtesy of The Co-operative Insurance, The Co-operative Bank and footballtradedirectory.com following a great response to our competition.

Read More >

Win your ground a makeover!

THE Johnstone's Paint Trophy team have launched a grass roots competition to spruce up non-league grounds and pitches across the country.

Read More >

UEFA announce Grassroots Day

UEFA have announced a Grassroots Day as part of their ongoing plans to improve participation levels in football.

Read More >

Lindley celebrates 2009 football season with two new contracts

Lindley Group, the UK's leading specialist in sports stadia and venue catering, has ushered in the 2009 football season by netting a duo of new stadia catering contracts with a total value of around £3 million.

Read More >

Huddersfield sign on with RelayStation

Huddersfield Town join the growing number of clubs to use voice and text messaging broadcaster RelayStation to get their message to fans.

Read More >

Extended Kit Deal for Yeovil Town Football Club

Yeovil Town Football Club today announced that they have signed a 3 year extension with kit manufacturer Vandanel that will see the London based sports brand supply the club with home and away kits until May 2013.

Read More >

This Week's Poll

Will West Brom's idea of selling shirt sponsorship match by match work?

Yes, it's the way forward

No, it's flawed

View Last Week's Results

Also this Week

West Brom announce new shirt sponsorship concept

West Brom have announced that they will sell their shirt sponsorship match-by-match in a unique shirt sponsorship idea, but will it work?

Read More >

Junior side land sponsorship with Liverpool ONE

A junior team in Liverpool is celebrating after landing a sponsorship deal with Liverpool ONE.

Read More >

QPR announce Stan James deal

Queens Park Rangers have announced a three-year deal with bookmakers Stan James. The six-figure agreement comes on the back of 118Bet's sponsorship deal with Liverpool FC.

Read More >

City top spenders on agents

Manchester City topped the amount spent on agents in the year ending September 2009, forking out nearly £13 million.

Read More >

Everton's new stadium plans rejected

Everton's plan to build a 50,000-seat stadium in Kirkby has been rejected by the government because of the "negative impact" of the development on surrounding areas.

Read More >

Follow us

