

Our Partners

Mick Rathbone Column - Football's lost 'superfuel'

In his monthly column, Everton Head of Sports Medicine Mick Rathbone recalls a time when nutritional refreshments weren't so nutritional...

Read More >

2010 Directory launches at SMEX Wembley

The Football Trade Directory 2010 printed edition enjoyed a successful launch at this year's Sports Merchandise Exhibition in a packed Bobby Moore Suite at Wembley Stadium.

Read More >

Action Images enjoy success at SJ Awards

Action Images photographer Scott Heavey collected Britain's top honour for sports photography after winning the prestigious "Sports Photographer of the Year" award at the Sports Journalists' Association (SJA) Awards on Monday night.

Read More >

Coventry City reveal new sponsorship details

Coventry City have announced that Puma has extended its kit sponsorship of the club for a further five years while The Cassidy Group will end its time as the main shirt sponsor.

Read More >

End of the road for Chester and Farsley

Chester City have been wound up by the High Court yesterday while Blue Square North side Farsley Celtic were disbanded.

Read More >

Academy prepares for ESFA Cup Final

Accross Football Academy has continued its on the field success with the Girls Academy preparing for the ESFA Cup Final to be held at Accrington Stanley.

Read More >

Palace ask fans to sponsor club

Crystal Palace have asked supporters to sponsor their game against Preston North End as the club continues to battle in administration.

Read More >

Also This Week

SPL prevent Old Firm selling individual TV rights

The Scottish Premier League's chief executive Neil Doncaster has made it clear that Rangers and Celtic will not be allowed to sell individual television rights.

Read More >

United takeover bid looming?

The Glazers' resolve is set to be tested at Manchester United with reports that the Red Knights are set to appoint official bank advisers as they move towards a bid for the Premier League champions.

Read More >

Plymouth to sell Home Park ground

Championship strugglers Plymouth Argyle have announced plans to sell Home Park and issue nearly £2m worth of shares after revealing losses of £2.8m.

Read More >

Livingston sign up with Alpha Plus

Livingston Football Club have announced a new sponsorship agreement with West Lothian based company Alpha Plus.

Read More >

Mars add Scottish football team as new partner

Mars have signed a four-year partnership with The Scottish FA to become an official partner to the national team.

Read More >

Rangers open to takeover offers

Rangers have ended speculation by confirming they are willing to listen to takeover bids with three candidates being linked with the Old Firm club.

Read More >

Football Trade Directory 2010
Out Now

