

Our Partners

Win tickets to The Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final at Wembley Stadium!

We have teamed up with Wembley Stadium to give away two Club Wembley tickets for this year's Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final.

Carlisle United will face Southampton in the Final on Sunday 28th March with the match kicking off at 1.30pm and you could enjoy the game in style.

Read More >

Npower to become Football League title sponsor

Npower is set to become the new title sponsor of The Football League in a £21m deal lasting three years.

Read More >

FA set to honour grassroots football volunteers

Grassroots football clubs and volunteers from across the country are set to be recognised this year with The FA Community Awards.

Read More >

Experienced journalist makes move to the opposition

Football reporter Brian Ellis has transferred to the opposition after almost 30 years writing about the glorious game.

Read More >

PNE's new Puma deal

Preston North End has signed a new three-year kit supply deal with Puma. Puma will provide Preston with its home and away jerseys and training wear, with its UK licensee, Genesis Sports, responsible for distributing official replica apparel. The first new Puma kit will be launched on 23rd April.

Read More >

Also This Week

Manchester City to spend a billion on redevelopment

Manchester City has revealed plans to develop 200 acres of land around the Eastlands Stadium in a £1 billion plan.

Read More >

Bookmaker extends Forest deal

Gibraltar-based bookmaker Victor Chandler has signed a two-year extension to continue as the official sponsor of Championship side Nottingham Forest FC.

Read More >

FA reward counties

Eight County FAs have been rewarded at Wembley after achieving Foundation Level of Equality Standard.

Read More >

Oxford City lead way for the deaf

Oxford City, a local FA Charter Standard Community Club, has become one of Oxfordshire's first deaf friendly football clubs. The Club has recently joined the NDSCS Deaf Friendly FC project and has committed to opening up the game to deaf people.

Read More >

Football Trade Directory 2010
Out Now

