

Our Partners

FTD team up with FourFourTwo

FourFourTwo
THE ULTIMATE FOOTBALL MAGAZINE

FootballTradeDirectory.com has teamed up with FourFourTwo magazine to give you an exclusive offer of 3 issues for just £3! Saving 75% on the cover price!

Read More >

Government plans to hand clubs to fans

Labour will attempt to hand back clubs to football fans if they are re-elected into power. Fans will have the first option to buy their clubs when they are put up for sale.

Read More >

Record turnout expected at Falkirk Cup 2010

The Falkirk Cup is set to enjoy its biggest year yet with over 2,700 visitors expected over the Easter weekend with a host of junior football tournaments taking place.

Read More >

FC United propose new ground plans

FC United of Manchester has announced plans to develop a football ground in Newton Heath, Manchester - the birthplace of Manchester United.

Read More >

Sheffield United agree brewery partnership

Championship side Sheffield United have announced brewer Molson Coors as a new partner of the club in a six figure, three year deal.

MOLSON Coors

Read More >

Dark Blues sign with Puma

Scottish First Division side Dundee have signed a new four-year deal with sportswear manufacturer Puma and its UK licensee Genesis Sports in addition to a new four year extension with Provan Sports who look after Dundee Direct the official club shop.

Read More >

Also This Week

Conference side take on charity cycling challenge

Blue Square South side Staines Town are set to raise money for a number of charities throughout the summer as a group of fans and players will take on a cycling challenge around London.

Read More >

Chester fans vote for new club name

City Fans United has voted to rename Chester City 'Chester Football Club' as a part of plans to reform the club next season.

Read More >

Football Trade Directory 2010 Out Now

Win Tickets to

Click here to enter